Num. 422

9th 422.

The last Holland Mail brought these farther Advices.

HEY write from Madrid, that the King and Queen of Spain were extremely troubled when they heard that Don Patinho, a Minister who has rendered himself so worthy of their Esteem and Confidence, was so very ill that his Physicians gave him over; and that his Majesty, in order to give him a new Proof of his Affection, acquainted him that very Day that he was a Grandee of Spain, with a Right nominating any of his Kindred that he thought to succeed him in that Dignity. The Minister accordingly nominated his Nephew, the Marquis de Belar, Son of the Marquis of that Name who was King of Spain's Ambassador at Paris, where 3 Years ago he died. And his Majesty, in order to make all Don Patinho's Family Sharers of his Favours, has settled a considerable Pension upon his Niece, the Marchioness de Fuenclara, Wife to the Marquis who is now the Spanish Ambassador at Paris. 'Tis believed at Paris and elsewhere, that this Secretary's Death will occasion some Alteration in the political System of the Court of Madrid. They talk very much at Paris, of some Papers of consequence that he delivered into the Hands of the King and Queen of Spain, which some call a Political Testament, but others will have it to be a Memorial, wherein that able Minister has plann'd the Conduct which he would advise the King of Spain to observe in regard to the general Affairs, and what Resolutions are proper to be taken according as Things turn out.

They write from Paris, that the Bishop of Senz, above 80 Years of Age, has just publish'd a very long Letter which is printed, and cry'd up by the Enthusiasts, as the admirable Letter, by way of Epiphany, because it vigorously takes their Part with regard to the Miracles and Convulsions ascrib'd to the Abbe Paris. Several other Pieces are publish'd there, particularly a Treatise of French Poetry, or of that Part of Grammar relating to the Pronunciation, Accents and Syllables, by the Abbe de la Harpe, of the French Academy: The Life of the celebrated Gassendi, by Father Bongerel of the Oratory, who is writing the History of the illustrious Learned Men of Provence: And a new Tragedy, called, Childeric, King of France, by M. Morand, Author of the Tragedy of Teglus. It seems that the Report given out at Paris, of the Reference remark'd in the Rising and Setting of the Comet, and the Disappearance of one of Jupiter's Satellites, was no more than an impudent Allegory invented to satirise some Persons of great Eminence and Esteem at the Court of France.

Edinburgh Oct. 26. The Beginning of last Week the Right Hon. the Earl of Marchmont set out for Bath, whence, after a few Days Stay, his Lordship sets out for the South Parts of France.

Friday last (pursuant to her Majesty's Royal Proclamation) came on at the Borough Room the Election of a Peer, to represent this Part of the Kingdom, in the room of the late Earl of Breacons, when the Right Hon. John Earl of Brecon, was unanimously chosen by the Meeting. It was observed to be the most numerous of any known at a single Election; 34 Peers having been in Person, and 21 by Proxy. After the Election, his Lordship invited the whole Nobility, and several other Persons of Distinction, to a splendid Entertainment at his Lodgings in the Palace of Holyrood House.

On which Occasion, the Troops quartered here were sent into the Country, and did not return till Saturday Night.

That Night a Serjeant's Command of the Forces march'd down to the Abbey Court with the Adjutant of the Regiment, in order to mount a Guard within the Royal Palace, but were denied Access by Mr. Nichol, Porter, and Mr. Hamilton, Clerk of the Council, till an Order from his Majesty or the Duke of Hamilton for there so doing, should be exhibited to them; with which not being furnished, they were obliged to retire.

His Excellency Lieutenant General Wade has taken the Lodgings in Canongate, some time possessed by his Grace the Duke of Argyll.

Yesternight a Company of the Welch Fusiliers reinforced the Castle.

Last Saturday William Stirling, a Merchant's Apprentice of that Name in this City, who was committed Prisoner to the Castle some Weeks ago, upon Suspicion of his being Accessary to the late Riot about Capt. Porteous, was admitted to Bail, his Majesty's Advocate and Solicitor having examined several Witnesses, by whom it appeared he was entirely innocent, and that he was not in any of the Places the Time when and where the Riot was committed.

This Day one McLauchlan, lately a Servant of the Countess of Wemyss, was committed Prisoner to the Castle, on account of the late Riot in Capt. Porteous's Affair; he was hand-cuff'd, and guarded by a strong Detachment of Welch Fusiliers.

Canterbury, Oct. 27. On Friday last about 6 o'Clock in the Evening Hannah Mols, of the Parish of Minster in the Isle of Thanet, was attack'd in the Marshes between Chiffet and Sarr, as she was going into the Island, by a Man and Woman unknown, and was robb'd and us'd in the following barbarous Manner; they first seiz'd her and began to strip her, but she got from them and ran a few Rods and scream'd, but they soon overtook her and flung her down, and the Woman stop'd her Mouth with Grass and Dirt, then tied a Handkerchief over that, and went to stripping her; before they had quite done that, the Woman having her Knees on her Breast, ask'd the Man for the Knife they us'd to cut her Stays off, to cut her Throat, but the Man said he could not find it; at which Time, they thought they heard somebody coming that Way, upon which they dragg'd her down the Bank and flung her into the publick Sewer and left her; the Water being then very low, she got out to Sarr a melancholy Object, having nothing on but her Shift, Shoes and Stockings, her Breasts very much bruised with the Woman's setting her Knees on them. The Cloaths they took from her were as follows, viz. a round Gown English Cotton, with a narrow Stripe blue and white; a quilted Petticoat, one Side blue and white Woollen Cotton, the other Side red and white, Yard wide; a white Flannel Petticoat, with a red and green Border; a blue Bays Petticoat, with a blue and white Border; a Pair of Stays, the back Part of a dark Colour, before of a light, and the Sides yellow; in her Pocket was a Guinea and seven Shillings and some Halfpence. If any of the above-mentioned Cloaths should be seen upon, or offer'd to be sold by any Person, 'tis desir'd they may be taken Notice of. The unfortunate young Woman is now at Sarr in a very weak Condition.

Norwich, Oct. 30. Benjamin Legood, who made his Escape from our Castle, is now under Confinement in the Fleet Prison, London.

This being his Majesty's Birth-day, the Morning was usher'd in with ringing of Bells, &c.

On Tuesday last Mary Sharlow, alias Jessop, was convicted of buying and receiving embezzled Yarn, and fined Ten Pounds. She appears to be an old Offender, having been convicted in the Mayoralty of Edmund Hutton, Esq; and of Benjamin Nuthall, Esq; At the same Time a Journeyman Weaver was convicted of disposing of a Remnant of Sattin to the said Jessop, for which he was fined Five Shillings.

Last Thursday Night Henry Reynolds of Plumpstead, was brought to the Castle, for stealing a black Mare from Henry Pigg of Great Maffingham in Norfolk.

They write from Holt, that at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held there on Thursday the 14th Inst. a certain Attorney at Law of Great Bir- ham in the County of Norfolk, was tried for Extortion, and found Guilty; but by the Lenity of the Court, was fin'd only Five Guineas, and bound over to his good Behaviour till the next Sessions.

On Sunday last a poor Scotsman died at the King's Head in the Market-place, of a mortal Wound he received in his Skull, from a Fellow with a Halbert at St. Faith's Fair last, the Pick of which he struck into his Head with such Violence that his Brains came out. On Monday the Coroner's Inquest sat on his Body, and gave in their Verdict, That he died of that Wound he had received from a Person to them unknown. We do not hear that the Murderer is yet apprehended; but every body who can give any Intelligence of him, and would so far stand clear of partaking in the Guilt of shedding innocent blood, ought to do their utmost to bringing him to Justice.

Bristol, Oct. 30. Last Tuesday was committed to Newgate Elizabeth Smith, a young Woman aged about 20, charg'd on Oath, and her own Confession, with stealing out of the Dwelling House of the Widow Hare, in Ellibroad-street, four Gold Rings, sixteen Guineas, four half Guineas, one Moldore, one 18 s. Piece, and two Silver Spoons. Since her Confinement, she has confess'd her being guilty of several other Robberies, particularly of stealing from Mrs. Joan Lewelling, Mantua-maker in Lewens-Mead, three Check Shirts, one Piece of Cotton, a Suit of Cambrick Head-Cloaths, one Cambrick Handkerchief, one half Handkerchief, one Green Cambric Gown, a long Olive colour'd Cloak, a Silk Quilted Petticoat, and a Cambrick Mob. She has been stripp'd of almost all the Cloaths on her Back while in Newgate, by several Persons that found there Goods upon her.

We have an Account from Exeter of the Death of — Bussie, Esq; one of the Aldermen of that City, and the most eminent Clothier in the County of Devon, a Gentleman universally esteem'd and lamented; he dying without a Will, all his real and personal Estate, which is very considerable, devolves to his only Son Mr. George Bussie.

Last Sunday died of the Small Pox, Mrs. Pye, Wife to Mr. Samuel Pye, a skilful Surgeon of this City. We hear she fell ill of this Distemper by accidentally seeing a Person at Church lately recovered from it.

The Incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some imitating it by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names: therefore pray take Notice, that the only true and original Powder, is sold no where else, but as directed below: It is sent for in large Quantities to the Physicians beyond the Seas, to whom good Allowance is given, as an effectual in the East or West Indies as at London.

WHICH has given so great Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England; for several Years that it hath been published, and vast Quantities of the same still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mr. King's Toy-shop, the Blue-coat against the Cross-Key Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mr. N. ham's Toy-shop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunstons Church Fleet-street, and no where else, at 1s. each Box.

As once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, and so black or yellow, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them sound to exceeding old Age; wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, prevents Bleeding, kills Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and hinders the Tooth-ach. It admirably softens loose Teeth, is a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Smell, in Virtue far exceeds any Thing ever yet found out for this Purpose.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mr. N. ham for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders to mistake the Shop, (MARKHAM at length in white Seven Stars) because most of the Toy-shops in her Neighbourhood seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have thought to counterfeit and sell their Stuff in Imitation of our famous and proved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.

Which is so much esteemed, and of so many Years large experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any Counterfeits sold at the same Places at 1s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heats them, the rough or chaps, prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes it delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming Colour; the Fragrancy of its Odour also renders the Breath and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.
